Cover Design: Bryan is a highly talented artist diagnosed with autism. He developed a strong passion for drawing at a young age. He is currently a student in the Huntington Beach Union High School District, and loves creating elaborate animal-themed drawings using markers and construction paper.

Bryan's marker and colored pencil drawing of six giraffes in a vibrant green jungle was chosen to represent the 2023 Orange County Arts and Disability Festival theme, "The Adventure Starts Here!" When asked about his piece, Bryan said that "the giraffes in his drawing are trying to hide in the jungle, but are not able to because of their long necks." Bryan's art is a wonderful reminder not to hide who we truly are.

ORANGE COUNTY SUPERINTENDENTS OF SCHOOLS FROM 1889-Present

Our Story...

On March 11, 1889, the California legislature divided Los Angeles County and created Orange County as a separate political entity. This act resulted in the creation of Orange County's own office of education.

The Orange County Department of Education was founded in 1889 with John P. Greeley serving as the first county superintendent of Schools. There have been a total of 11 county superintendents, with Al Mijares, Ph.D., currently serving.

We wish to recognize the following Orange County superintendents of schools for their contributions to the education of children in Orange County:

JOHN P. GREELEY	1889-1902
JOHN B. NICHOLS	1902-1906
W. R. CARPENTER	1906-1908
