UC Insights Workshop

September 10, 2026 8:30-11:30 am

Save the Date

The morning of September 10, we will have admissions directors from UC Irvine, UC Riverside, and possibly UC San Diego for a workshop. Last year, we discussed PIQs and choosing majors. Topics are not yet confirmed for this year, so please let me know if you have suggestions. More information and registration details will be available in the fall.

CCGI Support

We want to let you know that we are working closely with CCGI to determine how we can further support you and your schools. Be on the lookout for possible CCGI workshops in the fall, as well as support for select campaigns.
