

LETRS® TRAINING OPPORTUNITY

Empowering Educators with the Science of Reading

WHAT IS LETRS®?

Lexia's LETRS® (Language Essentials for Teachers of Reading and Spelling) is the gold standard in evidence-based literacy professional development. It gives teachers the deep knowledge and tools they need to understand how students learn to read—and what to do when they struggle. Through the Orange County Department of Education (OCDE), districts now have the opportunity to join regional LETRS® cohorts starting August 2026.

WHY SHOULD DISTRICTS JOIN?

- Supports Science of Reading Shifts
Build teacher expertise aligned with California's literacy priorities, dyslexia guidelines, and the state's new Risk of Reading Difficulties Screener.
- Comprehensive & Sustainable
More than a one-day training—LETRS® builds long-term capacity through a blend of in-person workshops, online modules, and Bridge-to-Practice assignments over 2 years.
- Perfect for Small, Medium-Sized Districts or Individual Teachers
Not ready for a district-wide LETRS® contract? Partnering with OCDE allows you to send a small group of teachers or administrators or a larger regional cohort—ideal for smaller systems, piloting of the program or teachers wanting to deepen their skills.
- Educators can earn 12 units of continuing education credits
- OCDE Handles Logistics
We coordinate with Lexia, host trainings, manage participant access, and provide technical assistance—reducing the lift on district staff.

Track	Duration	Format	Price (Per Person)	Cohort Size
LETRS® (3rd Ed.)	2 years	In-person	$2,200 - $2600	40

**Pricing includes training, modules, and materials. Per-person cost assumes full cohorts and may increase slightly with smaller groups.*
