READING DIFFICULTIES RISK SCREENER (RDRS) AND MTSS ALIGNMENT

Connecting Data to Tiered Supports

OCTOBER 1, 2026

8:30 A.M. - 2:30 P.M.

Orange County Department of Education Conference Center

Target Audience: Elementary Educators, TOSAs, MTSS Coordinators, Administrators, District Leaders

This session explores the connection between Reading Difficulties Risk Screener (RDRS) data and Multi-Tiered Systems of Support (MTSS). Participants will consider how literacy screening data can inform responsive instructional decision-making and strengthen systems of support across tiers.

Participants will:

- Explore the role of RDRS within MTSS systems
- Consider how literacy data can inform tiered supports
- Reflect on systems for instructional response and student support
- Strengthen connections between screening, instruction, and MTSS practices
