SEFEL – Modules 1, 2, and 3

This series covers the Social and Emotional Foundations for Early Learning (SEFEL) Pyramid Model. This model provides a systematic framework that focuses on promoting social and emotional competence, preventing challenging behaviors and teaching young children the appropriate skills to manage their emotions in social situations. In this model series, participants will gain strategies to support the key elements of the Pyramid Model:

- Building Positive Relationships
- Implementing classroom preventative practices
- Using social and emotional teaching strategies
- Planning intensive individualized Interventions

Target Audience: Early Education Teachers and Administrators

Please bring a device (such as a laptop, tablet, or smartphone) to have access to the training materials.

This training is free of charge. Learn, network, and grow your quality!
