"Identify and Create Meaningful Opportunities to Partner with your Students and Families in MTSS"

Students and their families are the people who give meaning and purpose to our work. This is a day to reflect, learn, and plan how student and family voices can be heard, supported, and engaged to strengthen positive behavior supports in your Multi-Tiered System of Support (MTSS). Lead by Kimberli Breen, who has had extensive experience improving family-school partnerships nationally and is the Family Ex-Officio on the International Association of Positive Behavior Supports (APBS) Board of Directors. A strong proponent of family and youth voice, Kimberli also implements the strategies she teaches others at home with her own son who has autism. Her publications focus on family-driven, Tier 2, Tier 3, and system-wide implementation, including the 2017 "Check-In Check-Out" video. Your team will identify and create meaningful opportunities to partner with your students and families in MTSS.
