

A Guide to Co-Teaching

for School Administrators, Departmental Leadership, Coaches AND Teacher Preparation Program Faculty, Supervisors, and Cooperating Teachers

Dr. Richard Villa is president of Bayridge Consortium, Inc. and an internationally known expert on the development of general education support systems. He and Dr. Jacqueline Thousand have authored 28 books and over 100 chapters and journal articles on topics from co-teaching and differentiated instruction to inclusion and leadership in school reform and restructuring.

Dr. Thousand is professor emerita at California State University San Marcos and vice president of Bayridge Consortium. She is a well-known national and international teacher, author, systems change consultant, disability rights and inclusive education advocate.

In This 4-Part Series, Participants will:

- Deepen their understanding of the rationale for co-teaching and what co-teaching is and is not while learning about the four predominant models
- Examine implementation science research and explore tools and assessment instruments designed to facilitate trust, communication, coordination of effort, role clarification, and lesson planning
- Explore a conceptual framework that shows how inclusive education, differentiated instruction, co-teaching, and co-teaching work together to ensure access and success for all students
- Learn about, analyze, and use a Co-Teaching Instructional Observation Form and observe the modeling of effective co-teaching coaching and practice using a Coaching Session Master Checklist to learn about the elements of an effective coaching session
