

Carol Shaw is an ATA-certified translator (Spanish>English), master licensed court interpreter, and has taught basic interpreting and continuing education for court interpreters for nearly two decades. Raised in Ecuador, she works as a freelance professional and currently has the privilege of serving several school districts in Texas.