

Esther M. Hermida is a federally and CA state court certified, conference, and simulcast interpreter. She is a dialect coach for the entertainment industry and a member of SAG-AFTRA.

She is an advocate for her profession and was interviewed by the LA Times; Good Day LA, and Slator.com. She has been published on the Daily Journal (legal paper) and the ATA Spanish Division blog.

She was invited to film two videos for BuzzFeed's Pero/Like that, combined, have over 760k views. Most people still do not know what she really does for a living.