

Giovanna Carriero-Contreras is an expert in translation and interpreting services, and a nationally recognized interpreting trainer. As a passionate language access advocate, her personal mission is to ensure that limited English proficiency individuals in the United States have the equal access to public services. Giovanna chairs the interpreting standards committee at International Organization for Standardization (ISO).