

Katharine Allen is a healthcare and community interpreter with over 3 decades of experience interpreting, training, and designing curricula. She is the co-founder and copresident of InterpretAmerica, an organization dedicated to raising the profile of interpreting. Katharine was a lead developer and is a licensed trainer for The Indigenous Interpreter® 60-hour training and has helped embed professional interpreting into medical missions in Mexico. Katharine is also a co-author of The Community Interpreter® International: An International Textbook and The Medical Interpreter- A Foundation Textbook for Medical Interpreting. She taught for the Glendon College of Translation Master in Conference Interpreting for 7 years and is currently an instructor for the UMASS Amherst Online Interpreting Certificate Program. Katharine has an MA in Translation and Interpretation from the Middlebury Institute of International Studies at Monterey.