

Susan Shepardson has over 35 years of broad-range experience in the field of child development with extensive experience in training and teaching adults. She holds a B.S. degree in Social Science from Chapman University and a M.S. degree in Child Development from the University of La Verne. Currently she works for Orange County Department of Education (OCDE) as an Early Learning Program Specialist and oversees fee for service professional learning. Prior to working for OCDE, Susan worked for Help Me Grow Orange County as an EPIC (Educating Providers in the Community) Coordinator and provided physician outreach and academic detailing to pediatric and family practices throughout Orange County. From 2007 to 2011, Susan worked for Anaheim City School District as a School Readiness Coordinator and played an instrumental role in the establishment of an early identification – early intervention program and oversaw a multidisciplinary intervention team. In her free time, she enjoys antiquing, art, designing interiors, traveling, reading, nature hikes, and volunteering.