8. a. There is clear and convincing evidence that it is likely the child will be adopted.
- b. This case involves an Indian child and the court finds by evidence beyond a reasonable doubt, including the testimony of one or more qualified expert witnesses, that continued custody of the child by the parent or Indian custodian is likely to result in serious emotional or physical damage to the child. (If item 8a or 8b is checked, go to item 9 unless item 10, 11, or 12 is applicable. If item 8a or 8b is not checked, go to item 14 or 15.) The fact that the child is not placed in a preadoptive home or with a person or family prepared to adopt the child is not a basis for concluding that the child is unlikely to be adopted.
9. The parental rights of
- a. Parent (name): Mother Father
- b. Parent (name): Mother Father

- d. The child is living with a foster parent or Indian custodian who is unable or unwilling to adopt the child because of exceptional circumstances that do not include an unwillingness to accept legal or financial responsibility for the child, but who is willing and capable of providing the child with a stable and permanent environment. Removal of the child from the physical custody of the foster parent or Indian custodian would be detrimental to the emotional well-being of the child. This clause does not apply to any child who is either
- (1) under the age of 6; or
- (2) a member of a sibling group with at least one child under the age of 6 and the siblings are or should be placed together.
- e. There would be substantial interference with the child's sibling relationship.
- f. The child is an Indian child and there is a compelling reason for determining that termination of parental rights would not be in the best interest of the child, including, but not limited to:
- (1) Termination of parental rights would substantially interfere with the child's connection to his or her tribal community or the child's tribal membership rights.
- (2) The child's tribe has identified guardianship or another permanent plan for the child.
