PROJECT GLAD®

Project GLAD®

Secondary Settings for Agency Trainers and Field Consultants

Join a two-year professional development series designed for educators and Project GLAD® trainers to deepen expertise in Project GLAD® strategies that support multilingual learners in secondary classrooms.

The series includes four key modules, each focused on essential components of Project GLAD®:

Engagement

Build inclusive, interactive classrooms that increase student participation

Small Group Scaffolding

Create opportunities for whole class modeling, small group scaffolding, and individual practice

Reading & Writing

Develop reading and writing skills through a focus on content and language

Academic Discourse

Design authentic peer-to-peer collaboration to deepen learning

Each module includes four days:

- One day of Research and Theory for classroom educators and one day of Classroom Demonstration
- Two additional days for Project GLAD® trainers focused on facilitation strategies, coaching moves, and planning for site-based implementation

Trainers and teachers will also engage in a live classroom observation to see Project GLAD® strategies in action.
