PBIS 2026-2027 SCHOOL TEAM TRAININGS

Positive Behavioral Interventions and Supports is an evidence-based framework that guides schools to use data, systems, and practices to create safe, predictable, positive, and equitable learning environments. The Orange County Department of Education (OCDE) provides professional learning and custom trainings to support school teams in implementing PBIS across all tiers.

The readiness guidelines for each training series and additional training details can be found by clicking on the "more information" link or scanning the QR code.
