	district and schools.	2. The district has started to conduct a thorough resource and needs assessment to support SEL implementation district-wide.
		1. The district has initiated their SEL resource and needs assessment process by reviewing the CASEL tool, integrating it with district resources and needs assessment processes, and identifying stakeholders who will lead and participate in this process.
2.	Develop a districtwide vision that prioritizes academic, social, and emotional learning for all	4. The district has completed a process with opportunities to involve all stakeholders (including students) to contribute to developing shared language, understanding, and ownership for prioritizing the goals of academic, social, and emotional learning for all students. The governing board and district leadership have taken action for public commitment to support implementation of the SEL vision as a priority for student learning.
	students	3. The district has completed a vision development process, but either did not include all the stakeholders noted in the benchmark above (#4), or have not publicly committed to SEL implementation as a priority.
		2. The district is actively working on developing a vision for academic, social, and emotional learning, but the work is not complete.
		1. The district is beginning to think about plans for developing a district-wide vision that prioritizes academic, social, and emotional learning for all students.
3.	Develop expertise in academic,	4. The district has developed widespread capacity, commitment, and knowledge in SEL theory, research, and practice across many central office leaders from diverse social, and emotional learning	departments to provide guidance and support for school and classroom academic and SEL development.
	theory, research, and practice at	3. The district has developed capacity, commitment, and knowledge in SEL theory, research, or practice for a core group of central office leaders to provide guidance

		2. The district has a professional development program that provides PD to address academic, social, and emotional learning capacity development for some staff at individual, school, and district levels using some effective PD practices including embedded, ongoing support or continuous assessment for improvement.

Activity		Benchmarks
		1. The district has academic, social, and emotional learningrelated PD opportunities available for isolated purposes, but does not yet have systematic coordination, alignment, or outcome assessments.
5.	Align resources to support	4. The district is implementing a longterm plan with funding, staff, and material resources to sustain ongoing SEL programming for all students. Additional funding academic, social, and emotional	partners are supporting the district efforts in academic, social, and emotional learning.
	learning programming.	3. The district has dedicated substantial funding, staff, and material resources to sustain high-quality SEL programming for all students.
		2. The district has dedicated some of the funding, staff, and material resources necessary to implement ongoing SEL programming for all students.
		1. The district has begun to identify financial resources for staff, professional development, and materials to support SEL programming.
6.	Communicate about academic,	4. The district has fully implemented a welldesigned systematic communications plan to engage all key stakeholders, internally and externally, to understand and fully social, and emotional learning	support academic, social, and emotional learning for all students.
	with a variety of stakeholders.	3. The district has partially implemented a welldesigned systematic communications plan to engage all key stakeholders, internally and externally, to understand and fully support academic, social, and emotional learning for all students.
		2. The district has started to implement a communications plan to engage most key stakeholders, internally and externally, to understand and fully support academic, social, and emotional learning for all students.
		1. The district is beginning to design a systematic communications plan to engage all key stakeholders, internally and externally, to understand and fully support academic, social, and emotional learning for all students.
7.	Establish PreK-12 learning	4. The district is implementing comprehensive, developmentally appropriate learning standards and benchmarks that articulate what students should know and be able to do in standards for students' social	the area of social and emotional learning from PreK through grade 12 and outlined intersections with standards in academic content areas (including Common Core state and emotional competence.	standards if applicable). This information has been shared with staff, students, and parents.
		3. The district has adopted comprehensive, developmentally appropriate learning standards and benchmarks that articulate what students should know and be able to do in the area of social and emotional learning from preK through grade 12. The district has outlined intersections with standards in academic content areas (including Common Core state standards ifapplicable).
		2. The district has developed a plan for adopting Pre-K–12 SEL learning standards.
		1. The district is beginning to consider Pre-K−12 SEL learning standards and reviewing exemplars such as the Illinois Pre-K−12 SEL standards.
8.	Adopt and implement evidence	4. The district has adopted evidencebased programs that explicitly address a full range of social and emotional competencies for all students in all grades. The activities based programs for academic	identified in the school theory of action have been fully implemented in all schools.
	and SEL in all schools.	3. The district has adopted evidence-•-based programs that explicitly address a full range of social and emotional competencies for all students in some grades and some schools. The activities identified in the school theory of action have been fully implemented in some schools.
		2. The district has adopted evidencebased programs that explicitly address social and emotional competencies for all students in some grades. The activities identified in the school theory of action have not been fully implemented in many of the schools with theprogram.
		1. The district does not yet have evidencebased programs in place at the universal level (although there may be programs in place for selected/atrisk students). The district is beginning to examine the school level theory of action.

Activity	Benchmarks

and data collection.	2. The district systematically collects data on two of the three domains listed above from some schools, but central office staff and school staff do not formally reflect on these data or change practices.
	1. The district has started conversations about collecting the data identified in the top benchmark (#1) but does not collect data in more than one of the domains, and does not yet have a process in place for reflecting on or using data to improve practice.

Part 2: Other District and School Outcomes

Outcomes	Benchmarks	Status	Comments
Positive districtlevel, schoollevel, and classroom climate	4. The district has actively implemented strategies to foster a climate of respect, trust, and collaboration through systemwide efforts to establish norms for student and adult interactions with demonstrated SEL competencies. There are established district, school, and classroom connections to support a positive climate.
	3. The district has developed and implemented some systemwide strategies to promote a climate of respect, trust, and collaboration. Some progress has been made on norms for student and adult interactions and demonstrated SEL competencies. There are inconsistent levels of district, school, and classroom connections to support a positive climate.
	2. The district is starting to implement some systemwide efforts to promote a climate of respect, trust, and collaboration. Establishing norms for student and adult interactions has also started.
	1. The district is planning systemwide strategies to foster a climate of respect, trust, and collaboration and also to establish norms for student and adult interactions with demonstrated SEL competencies.
Stakeholder commitment to SEL as a priority	<ul> <li>4. The district has secured influential district leaders, parents, families, and broadbased community leaders' commitment to SEL as a priority for all students. Board actions, policy, media, communication, resource allocations and business, community, and parent groups provide clear evidence of support for implementing systemic SEL.</li> <li>3. The district has secured stakeholder commitment to SEL as a priority from a diverse group of stakeholders including growing involvement of family, community, and other agencies, including funding sources.</li> </ul>
	2. The district has secured a few influential stakeholders who are strongly committed to SEL, or there is weak commitment from a majority of district leaders.  1. The district has Influential district leaders and stakeholders who do not address SEL as a priority.
Clear roles and responsibilities for SEL exist among stakeholders	4. The district has established communication, coordination, decisionmaking, and accountability systems supported by clearly defined roles and responsibilities of each stakeholder to implement systemic SEL. This has been explicitly conveyed to all stakeholders within the district and community through a variety of approaches such as websites, publications, memos, and other materials.
	3. The district has established most communication, coordination, decisionmaking, and accountability systems supported by some defined roles and responsibilities for each stakeholder to implement systemic SEL. Some efforts have been implemented to communicate this to all stakeholders.
	2. The district has started to establish some communication, coordination, decisionmaking, and accountability systems to implement systemic SEL. Roles and responsibilities of each stakeholder have not been made explicit in any communication efforts.
	1. The district has not clearly defined who is responsible for which aspect of ongoing systemic SEL programming implementation.
