	for an educated person.
	Addresses college and career-readiness.
3.	Goals identified include the objective of enabling pupils to become self-motivated,	Yes	No	Page competent and lifelong learners. Annual goals for all pupils and for each subgroup of pupils to be achieved in the state priorities that apply for the grade levels served by the charter school and specific annual action to achieve those goals.
	Provides goals that seem likely to enable students to become and remain self-motivated, competent, and lifelong learners.
	• Describes research-based strategies for achieving these goals that align with the mission.
	Goals are SMART—Specific, Measurable, Achievable, Relevant, and Timebound.
4.	Describes the curricular and instructional design of the education program that aligns to state	Yes	No	Page standards.

	• Includes discussion of key educational theories and research that support the educational program design.
	• Provides research-based evidence to show how the design will successfully serve the target student population.
	• Describes instructional approaches and strategies that will enable the school's students, including subgroup populations to master the content standards for the core curriculum areas adopted by the SBE.
5.	Description of the charter school's curriculum.	Yes	No	Page
	• Provides a concise description of the curriculum that addresses all major subject areas.
	Describes how the curriculum is research based and effective.
	Describes innovative curricular components.
	Describes intervention and enrichment programs.
	• Describes a curriculum that aligns with the mission and addresses the specific needs of the targeted student population.
	Describes professional development needed to support the curriculum.
6.	High School Only – Manner in which the charter school will inform parents regarding the	Yes	No	Page transferability of courses to other public high schools.
	• Describes how transfer students' transcripts will be assessed and a plan developed to enable them to meet graduation and college entrance requirements.
7.	High School Only – Manner in which the charter school will inform parents as to whether	Yes	No	Page each individual course offered by the charter school meets college entrance requirements.
	• Describes how the school will inform parents in the event that the school's course offerings might preclude a student from meeting graduation and/or college entrance requirements if he or she transfers into or out of the school.
8.	How the school will identify, evaluate and serve students with disabilities.	Yes	No	Page
	• Identifies whether the charter will be a school of the county or its own LEA for the purpose of serving students with disabilities.

ELEMENT B: MEASURABLE PUPIL OUTCOMES

EC § 47605.6(b)(5)(B)

The measurable pupil outcomes identified for use by the charter school. "Pupil outcomes," for purposes of this part, means the extent to which all pupils of the charter school demonstrate that they have attained the skills, knowledge, and attitudes specified as goals in the charter school's educational program. Pupil outcomes shall include outcomes that address increases in pupil academic achievement both schoolwide and for all pupil subgroups served by the charter school, as that term is defined in subdivision (a) of Section 52052. The pupil outcomes shall align with the state priorities, as described in subdivision (d) of Section 52060, that apply for the grade levels served by the charter school.

1.	Measurable student outcomes for all pupils and for each numerically significant subgroup,	Yes	No	Page including specific assessment methods or tools listed for each outcome.
	<ul> <li>Provides annual measurable goals and objectives for the school and for each numerically</li> </ul> significant subgroup of pupils served for each of the eight state priorities.
	<ul> <li>Includes assessment methods for each goal.</li> </ul>
	<ul> <li>Describes how pupil outcomes align with state priorities.</li> </ul>
	• Provides goals that are appropriate, achievable and aligned to the school's mission and instructional program.
	Goals for English learner academic growth equal or exceed those for the expected growth of English proficient students.
2.	Specific annual actions designed to achieve the stated goals.	Yes	No	Page
	<ul> <li>Provides annual actions for each of the stated goal that are specific and there is a</li> </ul> reasonable expectation they would achieve stated goals.
3.	How pupil outcomes will address state content and performance standards in core academic	Yes	No	Page areas.
	• Explains alignment between pupil outcomes and state content and performance standards.
4.	School-wide student performance goals students will achieve over a given period of time.	Yes	No	Page
	<ul> <li>Provides schoolwide goals and target dates for achievement, attendance, dropout, and</li> </ul> graduation.
	Goals are SMART—Specific, Measurable, Achievable, Relevant, and Timebound.

ELEMENT C: MEASURABLE PUPIL PROGRESS

EC § 47605.6(b)(5)(C)

The method by which pupil progress in meeting those pupil outcomes is to be measured. To the extent practicable, the method for measuring pupil outcomes for state priorities shall be consistent with the way information is reported on a school accountability report card.

	standards and other goals identified above.		$\sqcup$
	• Assessment tools include all required state and federal assessment (SBAC, ELPAC, etc.) for purposes of accountability.
	<ul> <li>At least one assessment method or tool listed for each of the exit assessments.</li> </ul>
	Provides a variety of alternative assessment types, including those that employ objective means of assessment consistent with the measurable pupil outcomes.
	Chosen assessments or assessment types are appropriate for standards and skills the school seeks to measure.
2.	A plan for collecting, analyzing/utilizing and reporting student/school performance to charter	Yes	No	Page school staff and to students' parents and guardians, and for utilizing the data continuously to monitor and improve the charter school's educational.
	<ul> <li>Provides plan that is thorough and addresses data collection, analysis, and communication</li> </ul> to all stakeholder groups.
	<ul> <li>Describes the role and use of data to inform curriculum, instruction, tiered intervention,</li> </ul> and enrichment.
	• Describes the role and use of data to monitor and improve the charter school's educational program and operations by the staff, school site leadership, executive leadership, and governing board.

ELEMENT J: SUSPENSION AND EXPULSION

EC § 47605.6(b)(5)(J)

The procedures by which pupils can be suspended or expelled from the charter school for disciplinary reasons or otherwise involuntarily removed from the charter school for any reason. These procedures, at a minimum, shall include an explanation of how the charter school will comply with federal and state constitutional procedural and substantive due process requirements that is consistent with all of the following:

- (i) For suspensions of fewer than 10 days, provide oral or written notice of the charges against the pupil and, if the pupil denies the charges, an explanation of the evidence that supports the charges and an opportunity for the pupil to present the pupil's side of the story.
- (ii) For suspensions of 10 days or more and all other expulsions for disciplinary reasons, both of the following:
  - (I) Provide timely, written notice of the charges against the pupil and an explanation of the pupil's basic rights.
  - (II) Provide a hearing adjudicated by a neutral officer within a reasonable number of days at which the pupil has a fair opportunity to present testimony, evidence, and witnesses and confront and cross-examine adverse witnesses, and at which the pupil has the right to bring legal counsel or an advocate.

(iii) Contain a clear statement that no pupil shall be involuntarily removed by the charter school for any reason unless the parent or guardian of the pupil has been provided written notice of intent to remove the pupil no less than five schooldays before the effective date of the action. The written notice shall be in the native language of the pupil or the pupil's parent or guardian or, if the pupil is a foster child or youth or a homeless child or youth, the pupil's educational rights holder, and shall inform the pupil, the pupil's parent or guardian, or the pupil's educational rights holder of the right to initiate the procedures specified in clause (ii) before the effective date of the action. If the pupil's parent, guardian, or educational rights holder initiates the procedures specified in clause (ii), the pupil shall remain enrolled and shall not be removed until the charter school issues a final decision. For purposes of this clause, 'involuntarily removed' includes disenrolled, dismissed, transferred, or terminated, but does not include suspensions specified in clauses (i) & (ii).
