

Observe
Wonder
Learn

Name: _____

Scientists use their senses to make observations and learn more about the world around them. Record what you Observe, Wonder, and Learn below.

Observe: Record what you see below. This could be a drawing or written text.

Wonder: What do you wonder? What questions do you have?

Learn: What have you learned through additional research or readings about your wonderings?