

What's for Lunch Vocabulary

Biomagnification	The increasing concentration of pollution as it moves through the food chain.
Carnivore	An animal that eats only animals
Consumers	A living thing that gets energy by eating other living things
Decomposer	Living things that breaks down waster and dead things
Ecologist	A person who studies ecosystems
Ecology	Study of ecosystems
Food Chain	A series of events in which one thing eats another
Food Web	A diagram that shows how food chains connect and overlap
Herbivore	An animal that eats only plants
Omnivore	An animal that eats both plants and animals
Predator	An animal that hunts and eats other animals.
Prey	Animals that are hunted and eaten by other animals.
Primary Consumer	An animal (for example an herbivore) which gets food energy from eating only plants.
Producer	A living thing that makes its own food
Secondary Consumer	An animal (for example a carnivore) which gets food energy from eating other animals.