When delivering a Power Point presentation, you can go to a black screen without turning off the projector or toggling the computer screen. Simply hit the "B" key while in the presentation, and your screen goes to black. Hit "B" again to resume the presentation. If you prefer using a white screen, use the same process with the "w" key.