

McKinney-Vento Homeless Assistance Act Overview

The McKinney-Vento Homeless Assistance Act (MV) (42 U.S.C. § 11431-11435) is federal legislation that ensures the educational rights and protections of children and youths experiencing homelessness. It requires all local educational agencies (LEAs), public school districts, direct-funded and locally funded charter schools, and county offices of education to ensure that homeless students (between 0-22 years of age, pre-school to 12th grade) have access to the same free, appropriate public education, including public preschools.

Definition of Homeless

Individuals who lack a fixed, regular, and adequate nighttime residence, and includes living in:

- shared housing with others due to loss of housing, economic hardship or similar reason
- motels, hotels, shelters, transitional housing programs
- cars, trailer parks, camping areas, parks, beaches, abandoned buildings, public or private places not designed for, or ordinarily used as regular sleeping accommodation for human beings
- abandoned, runaway or pushed out youth or migratory child living in any of the circumstances described above

Student Rights

- Immediate Enrollment: regardless of lack of proof of residency, immunization/medical and other school records.
- School Stability: Right to remain in school of origin (last school attended) or attend the school of residence (in area where the family is temporarily residing)
- Have the right to attend the next matriculating school pattern (elementary to middle school and/or middle to high school)
- If the family gains permanent housing, the student can remain at the current school for the duration of that academic year
 - If high school student gains permanent housing, they are able to remain at that current school site through graduation if they so choose
- Transportation: to/from school if transportation creates a barrier to attendance
- Meals: automatically qualify for free and reduced meals
- Dispute Resolution: if a dispute arises the student is immediately admitted and able to attend the requested school while the dispute is being resolved

Local Education Agencies must:

- eliminate barriers to enrollment and attendance
- provide educational rights
- identify students experiencing homelessness
- appoint a local liaison to assist students and families experiencing homelessness
- provide referrals to community resources including emergency and long-term housing, food, resources and counseling
